Tokyo College aims to generate new knowledge to contribute to the creation of an inclusive society and spark deeper public engagement with the University.

To address gender gaps in paid work and leadership around the world, we need better solutions for detecting and mitigating biases online and at work that are based on gender, race, and beyond. Tokyo College will host a series of interviews and talks with researchers in academia and industry to uncover how research is being used to tackle biases in online platforms and the workplace.

International Women’s Day Event Series

- Event 1
  - Amplifying Insights from Underrepresented Users to Build More Inclusive Products
  - Nanako Era
    - Lead Inclusive Researcher at Airbnb
  - Register now
  - 4:15pm-5:00pm, Thursday, March 3, 2022 (PST)
  - 9:15am-10:00am, Friday, March 4, 2022 (JST)

- Event 2
  - Strategies for Building Women- and Family-Friendly Workplaces
  - Ho Kwan Cheung, Ph.D.
    - Assistant Professor of Psychology at University at Albany, SUNY
  - Watch here
  - 5:00pm 16 March 2022

- Event 3
  - Advocating for Equity through Art and Design
  - De Nichols
    - Senior Product Inclusion UX Researcher at YouTube and Core Organizer of Design As Protest
  - Watch here
  - 5:00pm 23 March 2022

Venue
ZOOM Webinar / YouTube

Language
English / Japanese

tokyo.college.event@tc.u-tokyo.ac.jp