Web3.0 - Exploring the Decentralized Future

Speaker

Gavin WOOD

Co-founder, Parity Technologies
Founder, The Web3 Foundation

As centralized technologies wield increasing influence over our society, the significance of Web3.0 - decentralized, fair, and open web technologies - has never been more critical. Join us in envisioning a secure, transparent, and inclusive digital landscape, uncovering the transformative potential of the decentralized web in this forward-looking exploration.
